Nice to Meet You! <sup>[1]</sup>

By: Jerry Warshaw, Chairman of the Board

Thank you for your trust.

I am honored to serve as Chair of the Board of Directors for Lenbrook. It is a true pleasure to work closely with Lenbrook's outstanding Board and management team as we successfully navigate unprecedented challenges of operations, expansion and good health during the pandemic.

As we are gearing up for this year, the highlight will most certainly be the completion of Kingsboro at Lenbrook, our $108M expansion – on budget, and on time! We have already welcomed new residents into the stunning new Flats and Villas, and only a few more residences remain.

Let me introduce myself: My wife and I as well as our three sons are life-long Atlanta residents. I am the Founder and President of Warshaw Properties, Inc., an Atlanta-based real estate development and management firm 'A'. I am an alumnus of Georgia Institute of Technology and hold the professional designations of Certified Property Manager (C.P.M.) and Certified Apartment Property Supervisor (CAPS).

Throughout my career, I have served the industry in numerous leadership positions, including Chairman of the National Apartment Association, Chairman of the Georgia Real Estate Commission, President of the Georgia Apartment Association, and President of the Greater Atlanta Chapter of the Institute of Real Estate Management. I have also served as President of Private Housing '96, the officially sanctioned Private Housing Coordinator for the 1996 Olympic Games held in Atlanta, and founding President and CEO of the Georgia Apartment Industry Education Foundation (GAIEF). In 2012, I was inducted into the National Apartment Association's Hall of Fame.

In addition to serving on Lenbrook's Board of Directors, I currently serve as Vice Chair of the Georgia Real Estate Commission and as a member of the Housing and Demographics Research Center at the University of Georgia.

Again, thank you for your confidence in me and our Board. Looking forward to a great year.
